

You say:- "To tell you the truth, the story of your father has been written" etc. and may I ask you this question: Can you supply me a copy of such written story about my father? Will it not be much bother to you?

Please, also, do tell me if you do understand and read Spanish?

Inclosed you will find a very short brief biography that I have wrote about my father's life.

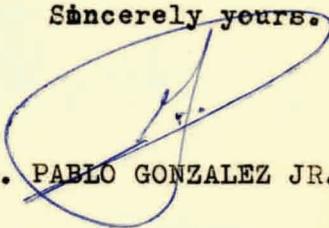

Also as I happen to have a copy with me here, I inthuse a copy of a letter I sent recently to one of the latest slanders of my father, a man that never aknowledges this latter that I sent to him and that was not man enough to recognized his error.

For the present I think you have enough historical material to ponder with and as soon as you may digest it partially or totalley if you so desire you may consult me about any doubts you may have or additional matters.

I think it wogld be better for you to address your next mail to tis place.

In the mean time I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year.

Sincerely yours.
